

Bear's Little Tree

Bear was a happy fellow. He would sing songs and _____ in the most delightful way. All the other bears in the forest loved listening to Bear sing his songs. His favorite song was _____. One day, Bear decided he needed a Christmas tree for his living room. He went into the forest looking for the largest tree he could find! He packed his bags for his trip into the woods. In his bag, he placed _____. Once in the woods, Bear found the biggest tree he had ever seen! Bear tried to cut the tree down with his _____. As hard as Bear tried, he could not get the tree down. For the first time, Bear felt sad. He sat down and _____. After a few minutes, Bear decided to _____. He noticed a different tree. This tree was not the biggest tree he had ever seen. In fact, it was a rather small tree. Even still, it was the most beautiful tree he had ever seen! It had _____ leaves and _____ bark. Bear easily cut down the tree and took it home. Once Bear placed the tree in his living room, he thought, "this tree needs a giant star! I have just the star!”. Bear ran to his treasure chest, grabbed the star and placed it atop the tree. Seeing his tree made Bear so happy, he began to sing again! Everyone heard Bear sing and they too felt happy.
